

IN THE COUNTY COURT OF THE SIXTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR PASCO COUNTY, FLORIDA

Sweet Living, Inc.,
Plaintiff,

Case No.: 26-CC-001256
Division: 6-B

v.

Brandi Rodgers,
Defendant.

DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO QUASH SERVICE OF PROCESS

Defendant, BRANDI RODGERS, appearing pro se and without waiving any defense including lack of personal jurisdiction, moves to quash the purported service of process in this action, and states:

1. Florida requires strict compliance with the service of process statutes. Service that does not strictly comply is void and deprives the Court of personal jurisdiction over the defendant.
2. Plaintiff purported to effect substitute service under Fla. Stat. § 48.031(1)(a) by leaving process with Defendant's minor son, age 15, at 3929 Argyle St., Zephyrhills, FL 33542.
3. Substitute service under § 48.031(1)(a) is valid only if the papers are left at the defendant's "usual place of abode" with a co-resident 15 years of age or older.
4. The Argyle Street address is not, and never has been, Defendant's usual place of abode. As established on the record, Defendant never took possession of, moved into, or resided at that address. She was denied tenancy approval by the park and was physically barred from the premises by a lock-blocking device.
5. Because the address was not Defendant's dwelling, leaving process there did not satisfy § 48.031, the service is fatally defective, and the Court lacks personal jurisdiction. Any judgment entered upon such void service is itself void.

WHEREFORE, Defendant respectfully requests that this Court quash the purported service of process, find that it lacked personal jurisdiction over Defendant, and grant such further relief as is just and proper.
